

CYBER INSURANCE FOR RESTAURANTS

If you're a small business, especially a restaurant, it's almost inevitable that at some point, you'll be the target of a cyberattack. 54% of cyberattacks on small businesses target the accommodation and food services industry. Of the 54% that were hacked, 95% were restaurants
Luckily, best-in-class cyber protection is easy to get.

Program Highlights

- Limits up to $1M available upon request
- Retention as low as $5,000
- Coverage provided by Beazley, considered the industry leader in Cyber coverage
- Competitive minimum premiums
- Easy application and quoting process
- Available nationwide

Key Coverages

- First-party and third-party Cyber Liability
- Business Interruption and Cyber Extortion coverage
- Notification Expense covered outside the limit of liability
- e-Crime coverages included
- Payment Card Liability & Costs
- Access to industry leading Breach Response Team

Average cost of a stolen record from a single customer, employee or vendor

IBM Security and Ponemon Institute

Think of all the customers and employees that have run through your system with a credit card transaction or other personal data.

1000 customers x $225 = $225,000

If you are interested in a formal Cyber quote, application required, or more information about the program, please contact us at cyber@distinguished.com.

